

CBF 2026 BIENNIAL CONFERENCE

Frequently Asked Questions

(Updated 05172026)

1. Where is the 2026 Conference to be held?

Riley Center
Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
4701 Stanley Avenue,
Fort Worth, Texas 76115

2. Which airports will get me there?

Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW)
Dallas Love Field (DAL)

3. How do I get to Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary Riley Center or Hotel from airport with public transportation?

A. DFW (Dallas/Fort Worth) airport:

DFW Airport has five terminals: A, B, C, D, and E. Take the orange-colored Terminal Link Shuttle from the curb at any terminal to the TEXRail Station at Terminal B.

Outside Terminal B, near the lower level of B30, take the TEXRail to the Fort Worth terminus (trains run every 30 minutes; fare is $2.50 per person per trip). From there, take a taxi or Uber to your hotel or the Riley Center of SWBTS (about $15).

4. What are the dates of the Conference? When does registration start for the conference? When should I plan to leave Dallas-Fort Worth?

Conference Dates: September 8-11, 2026.

Registration starts at noon September 8 and the conference proper starts after dinner on that day. Please arrive early for registration and in time for the dinner at 6 pm Central Time.

The Conference ends with a banquet (cost is included in your registration fee) on the night of September 10. Please book your departure flight out of Dallas-Fort Worth on September 11 or onwards of that date.

5. What is the registration fee for the Conference?

USD$100 per person. For Canadian participants, CAD$100 per person.
USD$150 per married couple. Canadian participants, CAD$150.

The fee includes conference materials, meals, snacks and the closing banquet.

Registration fee is waived for:

- a. Baptist ministers and their spouses who are attending the conference for the first time.
- b. Full-time SWBTS students who are registered participants.

6. How do I register for the 2026 Conference?

Register online at: <https://chinesebaptists.org/conf2026-reg/>. You may also register by downloading a paper form and mailing it to us with your check payable to “CBF” with memo: “2026 Conference”.

First-time attendees who are ministers and their spouses must pay the registration fee up front but will be reimbursed at the end of the conference.

Your registration is complete only after your fee is paid, either online through Zelle or by mailing a check for the correct amount to: CBF, P.O. Box 1393, Monterey Park, CA 91754.

7. What scholarship is available for pastors, ministers and seminary students attending the Conference? What is the deadline for applying for the scholarship?

Airfare for out-of-Texas ministers: USD$150 (CAD$150) per minister, USD$150 (CAD$150) for spouse. Fill out the scholarship application online when registering or download one.

Cut-off date for scholarship application: July 15, 2026

8. What about lodging for the Conference?

There are two options arranged by CBF:

There are limited rooms available for participants at the Holiday Inn Express Dallas Fort Worth Southwest (I-20) at a special group rate on a first come first served basis. Please book directly at the hotel using the link provided at the Fellowship's website. Use Code: CBF
